

1 Application

- 1.1 This Warranty applies to the Red Earth Energy Storage Pty Ltd (RedEarth) Systems set out in the Warranty Schedule attached to this Warranty.
- 1.2 Place and time. The Warranty only applies to Systems installed within Australia after the Effective Date stated in the top right corner of this page.

2 Warranty

- 2.1 Defects and performance. RedEarth warrants that your System will:
- (a) be free from defects during the Warranty Period; and
- 2.2 Warranty Period. The Warranty Period runs from initial installation until the earlier of:
- (a) 1 years after initial installation;

3 Remedies

- 3.1 Repair, replace or refund. If your System fails to comply with the Warranty, RedEarth will, in its absolute discretion, either:
- (a) repair your System;
- (b) replace your System with an equivalent product;
- (c) refund you an amount equal to the original purchase price
- 3.2 Parts. Repair, replacement or supplementation under this Warranty may be conducted using new, reconditioned or substitute parts of similar quality and with similar performance.
- 3.3 Remaining Warranty Period. In the event or repair, replacement or supplementation under this Warranty, the remainder of the original Warranty Period will apply to any repaired, replacement or supplementary product.

4 No other warranties or remedies

- 4.1 Disclaimer. To the maximum extent permitted by law, except as expressly stated in this Warranty, RedEarth disclaims all warranties, conditions, representations, guarantees or remedies (including warranties about merchantability, fitness for purpose or latent defects) in connection with your System, whether written, oral express, implied or statutory.
- 4.2 Limitation. If the disclaimer above is ineffective, to the maximum extent permitted by law, RedEarth limits the duration of and remedies for any other warranty, condition, representation or guarantee to the duration and remedies described in this Warranty.

5 Exclusions

- 5.1 No application. This Warranty does not apply to any defect or shortfall in arising from:

- (a) transport, storage, handling, installation, commissioning, modification, operation, maintenance, service or repair of your System other than in line with the applicable Installation Manual and User Manual as published at website www.redearth.energy and updated from time to time;
- (b) installation, commissioning, modification, service or repair of your System other than by a technician authorised by RedEarth;
- (c) failure to operate, maintain or arrange service of your System in line with the User Manual;
- (d) use of your System in conjunction with plant, equipment or components described as incompatible (or in similar terms) by the User Manual;
- (e) use of your System in or exposure of your System to weather, climates or site conditions described as unsuitable (or in similar terms) by the User Manual;
- (f) abuse, misuse, recklessness or negligence; or
- (g) events and their effects beyond the reasonable control of RedEarth (such as lightning, flood, cyclone, fire or power or voltage surges).

- 5.2 No cover. This Warranty does not cover:

- (a) fair wear and tear;
- (b) degradation of consumable components
- (c) scratches, stains, moulds, dents or marks that do not have, or corrosion or weathering that does not have, an adverse impact on performance;
- (d) noise or vibration that does not have an adverse impact on performance;
- (e) theft (including theft of components); or
- (f) damage or deterioration that occurs after expiration or voiding of the Warranty Period.

6 Requirements and restrictions

- 6.1 No unintended use. Your System is not intended for use as a primary or back-up power source for life-support systems, other medical or in any other circumstance where product failure could cause or contribute to personal injury or serious property damage. RedEarth reserves the right to refuse to service your System if it is used in these ways, and disclaims all liability arising from its service or refusal to service in such circumstances.

7 Limitation of liability

- 7.1 No consequential loss. To the maximum extent permitted by law, RedEarth will not be liable for any consequential, incidental, indirect, exemplary, punitive or special damages in connection with the System, regardless of the form of action and whether RedEarth had been informed about or might have anticipated the possibility, probability or magnitude of such loss or damage. For clarity, RedEarth will not be liable for loss (including loss by a third party) of use, enjoyment, convenience, production, contracts, revenue, profit, reputation, data or opportunity to earn, build or use the foregoing items or increased operating costs (including the cost of procuring substitute equipment or services) or financing costs.

- 7.2 Liability limit. To the maximum extent permitted by law, RedEarth's total liability (under contract, tort, statute or otherwise) to you in connection with this agreement is limited to the amount paid for your System plus transport costs reimbursable to you under this Warranty.

8 Further rights and remedies

- 8.1 Local law. This Warranty gives you specific rights and its terms apply to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law; however, you may have further rights or remedies under the law of your country, state or province. For example, some jurisdictions may not permit disclaimers or limitations of liability, and some of these may not apply to you.

- 8.2 Australian Consumer Law. Nothing in this agreement limits the Australian Consumer Law (being schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)). In line with the Australian Consumer Law, set out below in italics is prescribed wording that applies to certain customers, and which does not give you any rights you do not otherwise have.

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure.

9 Claim process

- 9.1 Contact authorised dealer. To make a claim under this Warranty, you should first contact the authorised dealer who sold you your System.
